Participant Feedback	IAS – Response
The pre-course questionnaire needs to be simpler.	Understood. Remember that the pre-course questionnaire is only about generating discussion in class. That is the reason for its apparent complexity.
It is better to follow the standard arrangement with the same order. The chapters format makes confusion.	Do not agree. The structure of the standard does not fit with how people actually work in a CB. The course divides the materials and standard requirements into separate areas to allow participants to see themselves in specific work areas.
The volume is too much to time.	Agreed. Will offer this course this course to non-native-English-speakers in a three day format instead of a two day format.

Other comments:

- The valuable information offered by David are highly appreciated and added value for my field. Once again thanks a lot for this work.
